

Donations

The Firefighters National Memorial, The Garden of Remembrance at the National Memorial Arboretum and The Chapel and Book of Remembrance at the Fire Service College, all require maintenance and, sadly, from time to time updating.

The work of the Trust requires a small income each year to achieve its obligations. The Trustees are asking you to consider making a donation to their work. This may take the form of a single payment or a regular, perhaps annual, contribution.

Please complete the form below and forward, with your donation to:

If you are a net payer of income tax then the Trust can recover additional monies from the Inland Revenue through the 'gift aid' scheme. For every £10 donated a further £2.80 will be recovered from tax. Please mark the appropriate box.
